

On February 17, 2005, Karen Peltz Strauss had a brief telephone conversation with Scott Bergmann of Commissioner Adelstein's office regarding the status of a ruling concerning reimbursement for IP relay services that had previously been denied. On February 18, 2005, Karen Peltz Strauss sent an e-mail to Jessica Rosenworcel regarding the same issue. Both communications supported release of an order that would overturn a previous ruling by the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau on this issue.
